Thirty was so strange for me. I've really had to come to terms with the fact that I am now a walking and talking adult."

C.S. Lewis

Dear Ladies:

I am privileged to have been chosen as your new State L.O.E. President.

I want to thank you for your faith in me. I hope I can live up to your expectations.

Our theme this year is “ENJOY LIFE’S JOURNEY”.

I found a quote by Elder Joseph B. Wirthlin that states: “Let us not dwell upon the difficulties of the road, but the glory of the destination.” That quote sums up my theme.

Each day is a new day. We need to use our time, talents and service to others wisely. This will help make our days brighter and more enjoyable. Grumbling about our tasks will never help us find our happy destination.

Television’s Dr. Oz tells us that you “can’t appreciate the limitations of your current life until you have challenged and moved past them.

No matter when you start making changes, remind yourself that New Year’s resolutions are not wind sprints — they are marathons. Be persistent and keep going. Are you ready to take the first step? There is no time better than now.”

I know that with the wonderful officers that surround me and the awesome Ladies that I serve, we will have a great year.

* denotes a Past President that has passed away

Coming from a farming background, I saw nothing out of the ordinary in running barefoot, although it seemed to startle the rest of the athletics world. I have always enjoyed going barefoot and when I was growing up I seldom wore shoes, even when I went into town.
